FROME LIVESTOCK

AUCTIONEERS LTD

STEERS TO £1,180 HEIFERS TO £1,095

The welcome rain produced a good entry of over 500 quality store cattle which saw many more buyers in attendance.

SUCKLER COWS & CALVES

Only a limited entry of Suckler cows this week which saw Angus cows with 1 month calves to £920 - £930.

BREEDING BULLS

A marvellous trade for the breeding bulls with this sale seeing 2 of the best senior Pedigree Angus bulls presented in recent times from AJ & RG Barber, both saw lively bidding to peak at £1,900 and the second to £1,450. Younger Simmental pure bred bulls 10mo from CW Gould were well sold to £650 - £700.

YOUNG CONTINENTALS

Not enough best younger Continentals forward with only limited numbers of single suckled types presented today. The days rain definitely helping to produce the feel good factor and overall there was a firm trade throughout. 9 – 10mo suckled Simmental steers from RE Dury & Son sold to a firm £770. Saler x yearling steers and heifers from A Atkey from £635 - £778. D James once again presenting quality 9mo Blue steers to £800. Smart pedigree Simmental heifers 13mo presented by C Tucker of Devizes saw good bidding to £740. The Hares Partnership continuing to sell quality Limousin steers and heifers 12mo from £735 - £780. Overall more quality types needed.

HEREFORDS

Another good selection on offer with both younger and older cattle selling well. A grand entry of younger 12mo Herefords all with named sires from the Vigar – Smith family of Marlborough with 12mo steers to a strong £670 and regularly over £620, 13mo heifers from the same home from £622 - £638. Medium weight summer grazing steers all easily sold from £700 - £800 with bigger, feeding and finishing sorts £850 - £930 from AH Farming. Best well fleshed steers once again coming from WD & VJ Masters topped at an excellent £1045! A number of quality Hereford x heifers were forward with some nice bulling types from £680 - £790. Heifers with plenty of flesh and cover topped at an excellent £1030.

FRIESIANS

An excellent show of proper fed Friesians with the best from £850 from AH Farming, £875 - £938 all from Bryan Read Ltd and topped at £960 from Greg Kellaway T/A Crackmoor Farm Ltd. Good summering steers sold well from £680 from Simon & Harry Bridger to £780 from TC & H Marks Ltd. Young steers regularly selling from £435 - £452. More wanted over the coming weeks following the increased demand.

ABERDEEN ANGUS

All Angus very easily sold from start to finish today. Younger Angus steers and heifers were wanted but generally more quality in the steers on offer this week. Ken Hedges & family saw their quality steers 13mo peak at an amazing £885 with plenty of bidders around the ring for these best types. These were closely followed by the Vigar – Smith steers at £790. A good consignment Angus x steers 13mo from the Small Bros created strong bidding to £700. Plenty of Dairy x small Angus steers from £600 - £670. Smaller younger heifers not always showing the quality from £500 - £600. Angus bulling type heifers for suckler replacements were well sold from £700 - £800. Older feeding cattle were seeing a swift trade with many steers over £1000 and best types from £1100 - £1180 from J Hollister, Ridgeway Farms and AH Farming Ltd. Fleshed Angus heifers for housing to finish overall £950+ and top grades with named sires from £1000 - £1095 from Ridgeway Farms, AH Farming and Simon Powell.

FORWARD CONTINENTALS

A flying trade with vendors rewarded for presenting more fleshed types today. Younger fed steers at a premium with 17 – 21mo Limousin steers to an excellent £1090 from PW Sherborne and 20mo Simmentals to £1090 from Bryan Read Ltd. Fed Blues also sold well to £1065 from Tom Farthing. Younger Charolais steers met a fast trade to £1000 (21mo) from Simon & Harry Bridger. Good summering steers regularly selling from £950 - £985 from several vendors. Heifers met another amazing trade with Blue heifers to £1055 from Bryan Read Ltd and £1050 from Tom Farthing. Quality reared younger Simmental heifers met keen demand to £1055 from RW & HC Breach, Limousin heifers to £1030 from Tom Farthing and Charolais heifers to £985 also from Bryan Read Ltd. Several consignments of bulling heifers regularly selling from £920 - £970. Many more wanted to satisfy the increasing demand.
