Last Sunday was 'Plough' Sunday! It feels important to acknowledge that this New Year has not got off to a flying start!?!...Disruptive industrial action, continuing COVID and Rampant Flu, severe cost of living challenges, war in Ukraine, Climate crises and flooding on the lower ground in Somerset...The list goes on!?! However, if possible, it's best to try and dwell on the positives in life!?! Hope is the expectation that something good is going to happen! 😊 The cartoon goes: 1st person says: Aren't you apprehensive about what the New Year will bring!?! 2nd Person replies: I think it will bring Flowers! (First person is taken aback!) Flowers, Really? Why!?! 2nd Person replies: 'Because I've planted Flowers!!'

When bombarded with negativity, it's easy to dwell on it. Lord and Creator, help us to not overlook those who plant for us!?! ... Farmers plant hedgerows, Trees and Wild flowers for the birds and provide the basic food for our survival! We plant and his daily grace waters and provides growth 🙌🙏

STEERS TO £1640

HEIFERS TO £1305

A smaller entry selling to an unbelievably faster trade.

This is the time to sell!

SUCKLER COWS & CALVES

Only one set forward this week but what a trade. Super young Simmental cow with 3mo heifer calf from CW Gould raced away to top at £2020! More needed after the Candelmas Sales have been completed.

FEEDING COWS

Excellent prices for the feeding cows and inline with the Wednesday trade. Plainer cows to £700 and and thicker Blues easily to £1100.

CONTINENTAL

Trade quite remarkable throughout the sale. Not enough younger suckled types to go around but all so desperately wanted. Quality Limousin home bred suckled 8 – 12mo steers and heifers from regular vendor Will Stitch produced tremendous bidding with steers at £1075 and heifers at £1005. Cracking 11-13mo suckled Charolais steers from David & Liz Brimble & family commanded strong bidding to £1095 with 17mo steers and heifers from the same home saw prices at tremendous levels to £1212 and £1080 respectively. Dairy crosses saw Blue x steers 15mo from Stonemark at £900 while 11mo Blue x steers out of crossbred cows from DIVA (Sherborne) Ltd settled at £758. Plenty of Dairy x Blue heifers 18-19mo well over £900 peaking at £950 from D & P Yeatman. It was a day for the Blues as we saw an excellent consignment from IW Lane & Sons. Although not farm assured their 24mo steers had an amazing trade with best to £1585 and often over £1300. Similar aged heifers peaked at £1300. Buyers really keen on these good conformation types. Hard out lying Blue x once again from Evershot Farms were very easily sold 20mo at £1045 for steers and £925 for heifers. More quality Dorset cattle coming from VL Vincent & Son and although over 40mo their Limousin steers topped the sale at an impressive £1640. Simmental heifers from the same home at £1150. Thicker better fleshed Blue x heifers were presented by regular supporters PW CC & JC Gould which all had top prices at £1300. Overall, an outstanding trade with quite unbelievable demand.

ANGUS & HEREFORD

Some real quality sorts forward with 20mo Angus steers from the Lane family of Norton Malreward topped at £1235, with others from the same stable at £1232. Harder types to £1180 from S Beach of Bridgwater with 21mo growing steers rocking to £1120 from BW & GJ Gray and £1100 from VL Vincent & Son. 19mo Hereford steers flying to £1030 from BW & GJ Gray. A larger number of Angus heifers forward with some real fleshed types forward. Best heifers rocking to £1222 from the Gould family with others to £1220 from RC Few & Son. Other 25mo fleshed heifers flew to £1175 from Tim & Looby Hiscock and £1080 from BWJ Cooke & Son of Yeovil. Cracking suckler bred steers sold to £900 from DR & EA Brimble, with Dairy bred steers sold to £800 from DIVA (Sherborne) Ltd and £790 from A James of Wimborne. Dairy bred heifers to £570 from DIVA.

FRIESIAN

Fewer Friesians forward but best steers flew to £1050 from the Gould family of Norton Ferris who had others at £1045. Best Friesian heifers to £1095 from Evershot Farms Ltd who had others at £965. Yearling steers rocked to £758 from DIVA Ltd with others to £678.
