STORE CATTLE (210)

A super entry of 210 store cattle for our April TB sale. Some excellent cattle were on offer and generally trade firmer than anticipated following a national easing of the slaughter prices. We started the sale with two good entries of Organic cattle which all saw tremendous bidding. Mr & Mrs J Hills forward Angus all over £2000 with their steers at £2340, £2390 and £2460. Thick Angus heifers from the same home also sold to a healthy £2400!

Younger summering Angus from Vickery Tate Ltd £1400 - £1600 and £1560. Older 21mo Fleckvieh steers to £1960 15-21mo Angus heifers from the same vendor to £1440.

Forward (non organic) Continentals had a great day. Real quality Limousin 24mo+ steers from JJ Taylor £2310 and £2440. Limousin heifers to a massive £2435 with everyone wanting these good types.

Grand South Devon x Stabiliser home bred steers 25mo+ from regular vendors James and Peter Corp were well sold and all over £2000 topping at £2110. Strong Blue heifers came from JJ Taylor and AW Doel & Sons seeing bidding to £2130 and £1860 respectively. Well fleshed deep bodied Angus were wanted with John & Phillip Wyatt seeing forward steers at £1940 and £1840 with heifers £1660. Longer term Angus looked the best buy today with buyers nervous of the long-term beef finish prices. 16mo steers £1300 - £1450 and 24mo steers at £1970.

A super consignment of Blue steers 15-18mo presented by J D Simpkins & Partners from £1600-£1730 and were equally matched by their Blue heifer at £1730. Similar hard Dairy x 6-8mo stores more difficult to place this week generally selling £500-£600. Overall, a well-supported market producing a firm trade.
