STEERS TO £2270 HEIFERS TO £2040

Demand remains strong with recent rain increasing confidence and holding the trade above finished levels.

ORGANIC

Only a limited entry forward and although the grass situation is desperate the demand for these good feeding types was very strong. All were presented from RJ Vincent & Sons of Sherborne and their good Angus x steers saw £1800. Hereford x steers from the same home to a wonderful £1830. Good shaped British Friesians had the firmest trade of recent times and settled at £1600. Overall a really encouraging day in this section.

COWS & CALVES

What a day in this section with a number of good types forward. A grand run of both younger and older Continental cows with Angus x calves at foot came from DJ Glover who is reducing his herd. Buyers were very keen for these quality sorts with most over £2800 and Simmental cows with Angus x heifer calves regularly over £2900 and topped at £2950. Best Blonde x Cows with Angus x heifer calves topped the section at £3000. Simmental cows with steer calves sold to £2850. Friesian cows with 10 day old Hereford calves at foot to £1420.

GRAZING COWS

Feeding cows saw keen bidding with Blue x topping at £1900 and well fleshed Angus to £2160! Leaner feeding Herefords to £1470.

YOUNG CONTINENTAL

Trade much faster than anticipated and the welcome rain just beginning to help with confidence from the buyers. Plenty of younger Blue x produced competitive bidding throughout; 10mo -U grade suckled steers from N Webb of Purton saw marvellous bidding at £1610 while Dairy x Blue steers (9-10mo) peaked at £1390 from Andy Pobjoy & family and were very well sold. More quality home bred Dairy x Blues from JW & P Marsh & Son (11mo) easily to £1480! More suckler bred younger cattle could have been well sold today.

ANGUS

The good selection on offer met another firm demand with farm assured and named sire stock still holding a premium. Forward steers selling well to £2170 (23mo) from Roger Glover and younger steers also met a premium selling from £1805 to £2035 (only 16mo) from Chave & Foster. Other quality steers met fast bidding selling to £1795 (15mo) from MD & DR James, £1740 (20mo) M Oram Farming Partnership of Devizes, £1590 (16mo) Parr Farming Ltd and £1550 Hollands Farm Blandford Ltd. Bulling heifers wanted with framed heifers selling to £1750 (23mo) from Roger Glover, younger heifers to £1690 (15mo) from Chave & Foster and £1590-£1670 FF & J Down. Yearling steers met keen bidding to £1455 from M Oram Farming Partnership and £1360-£1410 (10mo) from N Webb, Purton. Younger heifers also well bid selling to £1440 from Parr Farming Ltd.

HEREFORD

Several Hereford on offer this week and all had strength and conformation. Smart 13mo suckled Hereford x from Fonthill Farms sold extremely well to £1600! Cracking types from regular vendor Tom Bravin had a marvellous day seeing his 15mo steers £1600 and peaking at £1690! MD & DR James continuing to present grand cattle and 14-15mo steers to £1720! An excellent day with demand much brighter than anticipated.
